

True journalism takes into account both sides of an issue and is never blatantly biased. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of poor professionalism.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when unethical companies such as yours control the airwaves, we get more of a political spin than truth.

Your biased actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.
